

Cam Archer rings in 2020 with “Foreword”

The Inland Empire emcee returns sharper than ever.

San Bernardino, CA | Jan. 24th, 2020 - Seasoned Hip-Hop artist Cam Archer utilized 2019 to fine tune his sound, and is now returning to open the next chapter in his musical journey.

"FOREWORD" finds Cam Archer reaching a new level of comfort and confidence over production from regular collaborator Oh Gosh Leotus. Using witty lyricism to magnify past failures and future successes, Archer hopes "Foreword" will create anticipation for his upcoming project, "FAN FICTION."

Born and raised in San Bernardino, Cam Archer is a flag bearer for California's Inland Empire, delivering numerous projects over the last decade that have landed him on media outlets from Los Angeles radio station Real 92.3 to SiriusXM's Shade45 in New York City. Cam uses his art to help others find their purpose and shows no sign of stopping now.
